In Twilight Rendezvous, Derek Ashley explores his famous composition in a striking new light. Illuminated in radiant tones of turquoise and white, the figures move beneath the silhouette of distant mountains. The composition is both powerful and refined, combining Ashley's eye for design with a cool, dreamlike palette that sets this work apart as one of his most elegant equestrian studies.

Artist Profile: Derek Ashley

Derek AshleyÂ (1918-1986) was a British artist, a long-time resident of Chelsea Studios, London. Ashley stood at the heart of London's post-war art scene. He became known for his unique line paintings of dancers, racing cars, and horses. His late style, the still life compositions, positioned him as an important figure in modern interpretations of the genre. Furthermore, he contributed to London's art scene in the early 1960s as a co-founder of the Green Park Open-Air Art Exhibition.
