The colourful nature of this piece reflects the overpowering and commercial nature of modern pop culture. The astronauts, themselves part of the very culture they observe, view from afar, the chaos in the world below.

Artist Profile: Sandy Innocent

I am a freelance visual creator, based between Warwickshire and Falmouth.
My passion lies in the visual arts: From as early as I can remember, I have been interested in capturing memories and telling stories through still and moving images.
I have studied television and occupy my free time trying to create the perfect study of my current interests, whether this is people, objects, narratives or political contexts.
